

Donald P. Sauve

February 22, 1954 - April 11, 2020

Donald Paul Sauve, born to life on February 22, 1954 and passed away on Saturday April 11, 2020.

Don was born in Milwaukee, WI to Jacque and Donna (Bahr) Sauve.

During his short life on earth, he was the owner of Silouettes in Neon located in Milwaukee. He was a major influence with the neon industry in Milwaukee for over 40 years working with Miller, WOW Distributing, Steinhafel's and countless local bars and merchants. He enjoyed his time as a Road Captain of the Kettle Moraine HOG Chapter and was an avid golfer and bowler. Don continued many friendships that lasted more than 50 years. He will be missed by his many customers, all his friends and especially his family.

He is survived by his brother, Jim (Dar) Sauve; daughters, Tami (Terry) Lancaster and Heather (Neil) Thekan; grandchildren, Madison Lancaster, Connor Lancaster, Drue Thekan, Everett Thekan; he is further survived by nieces and nephews and many friends. Don is preceded in death by his parents, Jacque and Donna Sauve (1996 & 2017); and his dear sister, Susan Kay Flassig (2014); and wife, Patti Carroll.

No services are scheduled at this time.

Comments

“ Don is my soulmate..my best friend and MY husband. Our first marriage after knowing each other for more than 50 years! I miss him more than anything...

Mrs. Linda Sauve - May 12 at 09:06 AM

“ Don was a brother to Jim and a special brother- in - law to me (Dar) as everyone calls me. It is 50 years that I have known Don and he was truly a great guy. Don and Jim really did not see a lot of each other for some years but they were stil in contact with each other. We all have our own special memory of Don and I would not give them up for anything. He is afe and at peace now and with Pattie. Miss you guy Love Jim and Dar

jim and Dar Sauve - May 02 at 09:36 PM

“ Forever in my heart Uncle Donnie

Shannon - June 30 at 01:59 PM