

Joseph Asleson

April 29, 1959 - July 25, 2020

Joseph Asleson passed away from colon cancer peacefully at home on July 25, 2020. He was 61 years old. Joe was born in 1959 in Berlin, WI, to Clarence and Shirley (Disterhaft) Asleson. He graduated from Berlin High School in 1977.

Joe worked as a truck driver at Berlin Feed for 22 years. He enjoyed farming, gardening, cooking, doing crossword puzzles, watching movies, hanging out with his family and having a cold Milwaukee's Best Light with family and friends. Joe was always willing to help anyone who needed him and his quick wit will be remembered by many.

Joe is survived by his mother, Shirley; brother, Glenn (Terry) Asleson of Ripon; sister, Lynn (Chris) Gehrke of Chillicothe, IL; and niece and nephews Amy Asleson, Andrew (Ashleigh) Asleson and Evan Gehrke. Also surviving are two great nieces, many aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his father and one brother, David.

Family and friends may visit with the family on Thursday, August 6, 2020 from 5:00-6:45 p.m. at the Wiecki-Skipchak Funeral Home of Berlin. A funeral service will follow the visitation at 6:45 p.m. officiated by Father David Greenfield.

Private family inurnment will be held at a later date.

A memorial has been established in his name.

Due to the pandemic, friends and family are asked to please wear a mask and social distance in the funeral home, sitting with close family members or friends only.

Also, in keeping with CDC guidelines, there will be no luncheon or fellowship following services.

“ I remember coaching Joe at St. Mikes School, had a very interesting jump shot, not much arch. Asked him why he chose to shoot that way, his answer, there hoop was in the barn and there wasn't enough room to shoot higher, lol. Great guy, always smiling. Rest in peace Joe, hopefully the Polka song is wrong and there is beer in heaven.
