“ I'm still so in shock and so very saddened at the very thought I wont see you again and hear your voice. It was a great pleasure to work with you. You were always so upbeat and happy. You loved dogs like I love dogs. I looked forward to the times after you retired that I would get to see you. I am sure going to miss many things about you Kerry.

To her family and many friends, I am deeply sorry for you loss. She will never be forgotten.
