

Anthony "AJ" Inosencio

November 3, 1991 - May 6, 2021

Anthony Jon (AJ) Inosencio, age 29, passed away unexpectedly on May 6, 2021.

AJ was born on November 3, 1991 in Berlin to Tony and Becky. He was a graduate of Wautoma High School where he excelled in baseball, track, football and chess club. AJ was proud the year Wautoma went to state and he played at Camp Randall with his "Band of Brothers". He later attended college at UW-Whitewater.

He loved playing sports as much as watching his favorite teams, Brewers, Bucks and Buffalo Bills.

AJ was employed at Michaels Corporation where he traveled for work and later met his girlfriend, Alyssa.

He was a kind and generous young man, always up for an adventure. AJ's memories with family and friends will be cherished forever. AJ knew how to light up the room and will be missed by all who knew him.

AJ is survived by his parents, Anthony and Shannon Inosencio, John and Rebecca Hobbs; grandmothers, Joyce Inosencio and Bonnie Viertel; his siblings, Alyssa Inosencio (Joseph Mayweathers), Ashley (Jeremy) Meyer, Shauna Hobbs (Billy Daye), Shelby Hobbs (Chris Stucky); girlfriend, Alyssa; nephews, Kyler and Neven Meyer; nieces, Presley and Hensley Stucky; as well as many uncles, aunts, cousins and many friends.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, Anthony and Judith Inosencio, John Viertel, and Ed and Rose Hobbs.

The family will be having a private celebration of life.

In place of flowers, the family will be establishing a memorial at a local park in memory of AJ's love and playing basketball with his buds.

What a wonderful tribute to a life cut short way too soon. It's clear to see how much he loved his family, friends and sports. I know he will be missed but will live forever in your hearts.
