

Bernadine Bahn

August 12, 1923 - August 21, 2022

Bernadine Bahn, 99, of Berlin, WI, passed away on Sunday, August 21, 2022. Bernadine was born on August 12, 1923 to Paul and Edith (Coville) Leigh on the family farm in Spring Lake, WI. She attended the rural school near her home, and graduated from Redgranite High School. She went on to get a teaching certificate and taught all grades in several one-room schools. After raising her 5 children, she returned to teaching in the Berlin School District for many years, assisting students with reading skills.

Bernadine met her husband, Harold Bahn, in Wautoma, WI and they later married after Harold returned from serving in the US Army during World War II. They made a warm, welcoming home for their 5 children on their farm near Berlin, WI, where Bernadine continued to live until early this year. Bernadine will be remembered by her children and extended family as always being prepared to feed an expansive meal to a small army at a moment's notice. She will also be remembered as the grandma and great grandma with cookies in the cookie jar, fresh homemade rolls and cinnamon rolls at noon every Saturday, and a full jar of vitamins (peanut M&M's), every time they arrived at their second home. Bernadine was one who never wanted any recognition and was very proud of her Irish heritage and her family.

Bernadine was predeceased by her husband, Harold; oldest son, Richard; and grandson, Casey Fritz. She is survived by her children, Ronald (Penny) Bahn, Berlin, Karen (Richard) Fritz, Berlin, Susan (Stephen) Monthey, Portage, and Robert (Jean) Bahn, Berlin. She leaves 16 grandchildren and 24 great grandchildren who had better remember to always “stand up straight and square your shoulders”.
