“ This is Sue Loomer; I was so very sad to learn of Jill's death. I was Michele and Matt's 5th grade teacher in Berlin. I remember them both as wonderful kids, students who were always thoughtful, caring, and who worked hard to do the best they could in their studies. I kept in touch with Jill over the past four or five years, mostly on FaceBook, but I also saw her and two granddaughters (Matt's girls?) when we stopped at Ripon's Culver's restaurant in 2019. Norm and I were catching a light meal after we had moved to Cedar Community in West Bend. Jill's delightful granddaughters asked if they could sing a song to us! Of course! They sang to us as Jill nearby was beaming with pride.

My last connection with Jill was this past October when I texted her, expressing my sorrow at Scott Bartol's death. I wondered if she might be attending the visitation we intended to go to, thinking we might see each other. She let me know that she was in the hospital when she got my message, saying she didn't know when she would be released. I had no idea the reason why she was there, and didn't feel it was my place to ask.

Jill was a beautiful person, inside and out. Her smile was infectious; I can still hear her voice. I was hoping to see Michele and Matt at a visitation, but Norm and I are avoiding large groups because of Covid. I wish that I could be with you, but know that I am thinking of you all and praying for you. Maybe we will see each other some other time.
