“ Our son Ryan called him Who when he was little because he could not pronounce his name. He was Lowell's buddy back then. So many good memories , friends for along time . Talked to him a couple times a week and he called while he was hunting to let us know he got a big one and his friends got their tags filled. R.I.P. You will be missed.

“ "Slow Low..." That's what I will always remember calling him from the time I was a little kid until now. And we always laughed about it, making sure to let him know what time to be somewhere at least 2 hours early....Lowell was the most kind hearted man-one of my dad's best good friends. He had a hearty laugh and a warm smile. My sympathy to his friends and family, and "his girls."
