

Mrs. Marian E. Formiller

October 31, 1934 - March 15, 2015

Marian E. Formiller died suddenly and peacefully with her son at her side on Sunday morning March 15th.

She was born on October 31 1934 to Gertrude and Chester Mashock in Berlin.

On May 3, 1953 she was married to Delbert Formiller. Marian worked at Briggs and Stratton in Milwaukee for 31 years.

She was a lifetime member of the Berlin River Riders Snowmobile Club where she and Delbert met many lifelong friends.

In the summer she enjoyed going to the ball diamond to watch her son and grandsons play ball.

Her favorite activities included: snowmobiling and attending snowmobile races in Eagle River with family and friends, attending the Bugle Mouth Bass Tournament, attending the yearly Wittenberg Corn Festival, hunting and fishing, and her most favorite activity, spending time with her family.

Marian is survived by her son Joe (Sue) of Berlin, Beloved grandsons Toby Formiller (friend Angela) of Neenah, Nick (Tiffany) Formiller of Berlin, granddaughters Amy (Troye) Fox of Hustisford, and Sami Jankins of Waukesha.

Precious great-grandchildren: Kyle Becher, Trent, Carter, and Maci Formiller of Neenah, Ellie, Avery, Riley, and Joseph Formiller of Berlin, and Ava Fox of Hustisford.

Daughter-in-Law Patty (Charlie) Jankins of Waukesha and Granddaughter-in-Law Michelle Formiller of Neenah.

Also survived by Sister-in-laws Joyce Rodensal of Berlin and Barbara (Glen) Smith of Neshkoro, and Brothers in-law Norbert Walejko of Spring Lake. Also numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband Delbert, her son Dennis, her parents Gertrude and Chester Mashock, and a sister Darlene.

The family would like to Thank the CHN Home Care and Agnesian Hospice Hope for helping us through her final day.

Also a big Thank You to Sister Michaeleen for visiting to give Marian Communion and talking and praying with her. It meant a lot to Marian.
