“ Luke and family, Please except my deepest sympathy for the loss of Aunt Marianne she was a wonderful person and I'll never forget our little chats. She always had something smart to say too. I will always cherish the many phone calls we had with each other. There are a lot of good memories and will not be forgotten. May God Bless all of your family. Cousin Sue Elendt

“ Aunt Marianne, I am so glad that the last time I visited Uncle Walt (before we headed west to visit our son) that you were there also. Never knowing this would be our last visit together. It must have been God's plan for us both that day. You and Uncle Walt were so great with sharing your vegetable garden with us. "YOU WERE THE GIVERS" I will miss you terribly, but know you are in God's care now. Your Niece Arlene & Carroll Schilf
