“ Mark was a neat guy! He had such a great sense of humor and would always make me laugh on school. He was a really witty guy. So sorry for your loss. Glad he was able to find something he loved in fishing!

“ So many great memories. I remember being in west Yellowstone at his place. He kept waking me up and we would outside and nothing. Then finally you heard a lone wolf howling to the north, shortly after you heard another off to the west and within 30 minutes you had a musical. Four different wolves north, south, east and west all talking. It's a memory I will have forever. Rest in peace Mark.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, Ryan and Chris. You were good sons. We 5 kids had a great upbringing with mom and dad. We ate our meals together always, be celebrated each birthday and holidays were festive times with out immediate family. Marky was smart and funny. He left a void in our hearts but he is at peace. Love you brother. Your big sister Dawn.
