

Mr. Mark William Warren

July 11, 2014

Mark William Warren, age 63, of Berlin passed away after a long illness, on Friday July 11, 2014 at his home.

Mark resided for the majority of his life in Madison, but also lived in Milwaukee and Rockland Maine. He recently returned to Berlin to be with family during his final years. Before his death he volunteered at the Berlin food pantry.

Mark graduated from Berlin High School in 1969 and the University of Wisconsin, Madison in 1973. He worked as a Time Study Engineer and a Pastry Chef and Baker.

Mark was the eldest son of Claire (Geiger) Warren and the late Richard Warren. In addition he leaves behind one brother, John and two Sisters, Carol and Mary.

Mark's final wishes were for a private family burial service at Saint Margaret Mary's Cemetery in Neenah.

Mark and his family would like to thank everyone who helped him these past few months, with special thanks to the staff at the Berlin Library.
