

Minnie Blackmore

April 16, 1929 - September 16, 2022

Minnie Vera Blackmore, age 93 of Berlin, passed away peacefully with her family at her side at Patriot Place on September 16, 2022. She was born to Lewis and Minnie Osheim in Ringle, Wisconsin on April 16, 1929. Minnie married Lyle in 1951.

Minnie worked as a nursing assistant at Juliette Manor for 25 years. She cared for the residents there like they were her own family, forming bonds so strong that she continued volunteering after her retirement. She also volunteered at Berlin Hospital and Second Time Thrift Shop.

Minnie enjoyed traveling, visiting many countries in her lifetime. She enjoyed traveling with her girlfriends, children, and grandchildren.

Minnie is survived by her brother, Robert Osheim; sister, Marge Ader; daughter, Pam (Jim) Drumm; daughter, Bonnie (Don) Schleuter; son, Glen Blackmore; daughter, Vicky Rodriguez; son, Charley (Gloria) Blackmore; nieces and nephews; twelve grandchildren; and seventeen great grandchildren.

Minnie was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Lyle; her brothers: Orval (Wyiona), Leander (Phyllis), Vernon (Marie), Lawrence (Evelyn); her sister-in-law, Pearl; her daughter-in-law, Judith; and her grandson, Larry. A service for Minnie will be held at St. John Lutheran Church, 168 Mound Street, Berlin on Thursday, September 22 at 11:00 a.m. with Pastor Paul Munding officiating.

A visitation will take place at the church from 9:00 a.m. until the time of the service.

A luncheon will be provided following the graveside service at Oakwood Cemetery.
