“ I remember when Pat ventured off to North Dakota. He was full of hope and ambition about opening Miller's Pub and Grub. I helped him decorate the place and the entire community of Minnewauken helped and supported him. Business was booming and I enjoyed waitressing (first time in 30 years) while he tended bar. Employees called into work and we worked with one cook. The place was full and we hustled around and WE DID IT alone! It was a prosperous, rewarding, and fun night. I enjoyed helping him in his new adventure. The last time I was in Minnewauken business was still booming at Miller's Pub and Grub.
