“ Im glad you reached out to me in recent months. I wish I'd called you more. There are so many things that I want to say to you and ask you right now. Im so sad that we didn't visit more recent. I love you, my brother! You were always so easy to talk to and you actually cared and listened. Im very proud of the man that you became. You had a heart of gold. You were obviously liked and loved by many. Im curious to know if your children knew what grits were. Ill never forget not knowing they were a southern thing and when you came here to live we picked you up in Atlanta and stopped to eat at the waffle house. When I asked for an order of grits, you shocked me when you said "what is a grit?" All of my memories with you are good. I just wish that we had not lived so far apart and we could have been closer, but it didn't ever matter how long we went without speaking, when we spoke it was as of it had been no time at all. I love you and I miss you more than you will ever know. ... Until we meet again..... watch over us.

*My heart goes out to you Ashley, matt, kim, and debra and the rest of the family. Debra, you did one hell of a job. He was an amazing person. I wish so bad I had seen more of him, but life happens and the years slipped through my fingers. Thats one regret ill always have. I loved him. He was my brother and no distance or time could ever change that. I wish there was something I could say or do to make this easier for you all but all I can say is that I love y'all and if you ever need me please call me. Or even if you don't. Xoxo💔🙏
😭what a life to celebrate!*

“ Ronnie and his family lived down the street from us. The boys were good. One day they were playing in the old high school parking lot and Ronnie hurt his leg I think he broke it. My Mom took him and his Mom to the hispital. Latter Ronnie brought my Mom a rose. She thought that was so nice. She is gone now but she always remembered that so courteous if them. Ronnie you are at peace far to soon but you will watch over your family from above
Mary James always in my prayers
