“Rosalie will always be the relative I can't confirm. A great woman with a heart of gold. And we're glad we had the opportunity to work with her on our 50th reunion planning. Times like these are always a mixture of sadness and gladness and we will focus on the gladness for Rosie. The class of '66 will be comparing notes with her at our 100th reunion I'm sure.

“Peter, Tanya, and family, Thank you for sharing Rosalie with us. She was amazing at doing puzzles. I tried getting her some hard ones to do to give her a challenge....I succeeded with a panda puzzle (she didn't finish it because it was hard) that I plan to do in her honor. We had a lot of fun with Rosalie, Praying for all of you.

“ Tanya, Peter & family, I am at a loss for words. I heard the news of Rosalie’s passing while on vacation. I’m in Jamaica as I write this, with tears in my eyes. I am so very sorry for your sudden loss. My last words to her were “I hope you feel better soon and I’ll see you when I get back.” She was counting down the days with me and was probably just as excited as I was to see pictures. I am thinking of you all.
