“ It is incredibly difficult to speak of Rose in the past tense. She was truly one of a kind—so unique that no one could ever fill the space she’s left behind.

Rose was kind, soft-spoken, and a quiet powerhouse of knowledge for her colleagues. Her wisdom was a gift she shared freely, and I am personally grateful for the ways she contributed to my own growth and success. Rose made all of us better.

It always brightened my day to hear her laugh, like a little bonus gift. It is hard to imagine we won’t hear it again or feel her calming presence. And yet, we are blessed that she remains with us the voice of encouragement we hear in our hearts, in the lessons she taught us, and in the example she set.

To her family and friends, I hope you find comfort in your memories of Rose and in the lasting impact she had on all of us—a quiet but powerful legacy of kindness, wisdom, and grace.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Rose for 25 years. She was one of the hardest workers I know. Rose was tenacious, dug in, and self taught herself on many systems/programs. She was the SARS Queen! More importantly, she was a quiet, fun loving, dry sense of humor and didn't open herself up to many but to those of us who were fortunate enough, it was a privilege. She always asked about your family and truly cared. You will be missed my friend 💕💕
