“ There's not many people you meet in life that you get to meet that are so full of Grace and beauty. I've known 4 as far as women go. My mom, Janet Quick, GG and Shantel Rogers. Shantel was by today's standards a Hannah. She endured so many bad things in her life and yet survived them. She loved her Children fiercely and carried herself gracefully no matter how she felt. Shantel will be missed by so many. I can only hope I will see her again in Heaven when I get up there.

“ My dear friend Shantel I remember being at Sadie’s house playing cards laying on Sadie’s purple comforter, laughing, and as your past, we both had a children our first born, we both would take them for a long walk in the stroller in the town of Berlin, but let’s backtrack and go to your aunts house where we would have fun in the hot tub in the garage just laughing talking about boys years went by you moved away, but we still kept in contact just not as often as I would like, and then God brought you back to us so close and near in the town of Berlin where we could laugh have coffee talk about the good old days your smile was contagious your humor everyone laughed at I keep on thinking I can’t believe you’re gone, but it’s never goodbye. Goodbye. It’s till we see each other again thank you for being such an important part of. have coffee talk about the good old days your smile was contagious your humor everyone laughed at I keep on thinking I can’t believe you’re gone, but it’s never goodbye. Goodbye. It’s till we see each other again thank you for being such a important part of our lives you’re such a true friend till we see each other again hugs
