“ My Uncle Walt

Uncle Walt is one of my dear, thoughtful and wonderful uncles. Each summer from his and Marianne,s garden they would bring some of their vegetables to his older sister, Metta (when she was living) and myself. What wonderful vegetable soup they made. He and his wife were so unselfish. I'm sure God saw him as a "true Christian" Every time I visited him in the care center, his face would light up with a happy smile when he saw someone he knows. At times he would keep repeating, "I want to go home now".

When a nurse or aid stopped to ask him who I was, he would look up at her and say "that's my niece"

“ Luke, I cherish the time i had with your Dad and Mom over the years. Walter shared stories about my Dad from when they were growing up. And, he had some pretty good stories! My deepest sympathy. Your cousin, Kathi, Brad, and Alex Barber.
