

William Brey

May 16, 1930 - March 8, 2024

William Bloch Brey

William Bloch Brey passed away peacefully at Kokomo, Indiana on March 8, 2024 after a battle with Alzheimer's Disease. He was born on May 16, 1930 to Herbert and Elsa (Bloch) Brey in Berlin, Wisconsin. He grew up on the family farm near Auroraville and attended school there. He graduated from Berlin High School in 1947.

He attended UW Oshkosh and the University of Minnesota. He traveled the country seeing both oceans and the Gulf. He became a telegrapher and accepted employment with the Milwaukee Railroad. He was the Stationmaster at Woodland, Horicon, Mayville, Beaver Dam, and Watertown.

While in Milwaukee he met and married Kathleen Anna Trick. They had three children: Allen Robert, Paul Russell, and Judith Mary. He had four grandsons (John, Bradley, Gregory, Matthew) and a granddaughter (Amy). After his divorce he married Mary Louise Brouillet on July 10, 1982.

Bill is preceded in death by his parents, brother Robert, and daughter Judith. He is survived by his wife Mary, sons Allen (Sharon), Paul (Debra), stepdaughter Lorri (David) Spoonemore, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Bill enjoyed traveling, playing cards, hunting, fishing, and tinkering with anything that needed to be fixed. He owned and operated farms at Beaver Dam and Lebanon. He held several positions at his church. He practiced service to others and was a lifelong Mason and Lion.

Funeral services will be announced at a later date. Wiecki-Skipchak Funeral Home is assisting the family.
