

Mr. William "Billy" Jecevicus

November 28, 1967 - June 17, 2016

After a long and courageous battle with cancer, William (Billy) John Jecevicus, Jr., passed away at his home with his Mother and Fiancé by his side on Friday, June 17, 2016.

Bill, age 48 of Berlin, previously of Kenosha, was born on November 28th, 1967 to Janice (Herr) and William Jecevicus in Kenosha, WI. Bill was a member of the IBEW Local 127 for many years until his illness disabled him. He was an avid hunter and Packer fan and enjoyed an occasional game of golf. His favorite place to be was the cabin that he, his dad and brothers built in Southwestern Wisconsin. His favorite pastime was shooting pool. If there was a pool table, you could bet that he was on it.

Bill was engaged to Nikki Thomas of Berlin, who survives him.

Bill is also survived by his daughters; Ashley and Alyssa Jecevicus of Kenosha, parents William and Janice Jecevicus of Wheatland, Sister, Janet Broesch of Berlin, Brothers Robert (Susan) Jecevicus, of Kenosha, Christopher (Ajshe) Jecevicus of Berlin, along with many nieces, nephews, aunts and uncles.

He was preceded in death by maternal grandparents, Peter and Leona Herr, and Paternal grandparents, John and Anne Jecevicus as well as aunts, uncles and cousins.

Billy wanted his life celebrated with his family and friends at his brother's bar, Izzy's Pub, 186 Broadway in Berlin Wisconsin. The celebration is Saturday, July 2nd, from 2 - 6:00 pm.

Billy, i can remember the times at Bohat's when i bartended and you clean the bar, you would go down in the basement with a pool stick and jack was our only customer and he be sitting there so still and you would hit that pool stick on the ceiling of the basement and jack's bar stool would move and jack would clear his throat and you would do it again, i had to go back in the kitchen because i was laughing so hard, i have great memories of those days, some of the things you did were priceless and im glad i got a chance to share that time with you!! rest in peace my friend. “ I never realised how much he looks like his Mom! I remember what good kids he and Janet were when they were little! I can only say that at least he is in peace now,no more pain,no more sad family to see in pain. Now in God's heaven he will be hoping all your pain will soon be gone! I have heard he has the sweetest little daughter's! I'm glad they will remember what a good man he was! Peace to all you who remain! My prayers go out for you all! Karen Kelly

His God father Jerry is still alive, but it wouldn't hurt if Uncle John keeps an eye on me.
