“ Condolences to all Bill's family and friends. I always admired Bill for his level of political engagement. It was his way of continuing to serve his country. I also worked with Bill at Truck. Years ago management was giving a tour of the plant to some Washington bigwigs including then Sen. Feingold. As they passed Bill's work station he looked up and yelled (much to the chagrin of management) "Hi Russ!" The senator broke into a smile and yelled back "Hi Bill!" We all got a chuckle from that.
We'll miss ya buddy.
